Mr. Michael Santos
C/O Carole Santos

Dear Mr. Santos:

I am writing as the department head of the Department of Criminal Justice at New Mexico State University. We are aware of your six books and numerous articles on criminal justice. We would therefore like to invite you to speak to our majors, including 700 undergraduate students and 100 graduate students, at an all campus presentation at New Mexico State.

We look forward to your release and having you lead a departmental discussion on sentencing issues and corrections.

Please keep in touch and I look forward to hosting your visit at New Mexico State University.

Sincerely yours,
